

Date : 18/11/20

Unit - 6, Poem : 'The Wonderful Words'

Read the given extracts and answer the following questions -

A) All that you ----- yet been said.

(i) What can come out 'clear and true'?

Ans. The brightest thought can come out clear and true.

(ii) Why the thought needs to be groomed?

Ans. The thought needs to be groomed for better understanding

(iii) Explain 'Have never yet been said'.

Ans. The poet explains that a lot of thoughts did not come out as they were not expressed in proper language.

(iv) Change the word 'handsome' to adverb.

Ans. Handsomely.

B) Words are food ----- new surprise!

(i) How can be words the 'food and dress'?

Ans. The words are food and dress as they feed and decorate one's thought.

(ii) What is imprisoned behind the eyes?

Ans. A thought is imprisoned behind the eyes.

(iii) What does the poet pray for?

Ans. The poet prays for expression of some surprising idea.

(iv) Find out the antonym of 'Marvellous'.

Ans. 'Ordinary'.

 Copy the given paragraph in your writing notebook.

Festivals are larger than life celebrations of various things. They occur at regular intervals and helping in breaking the monotony of life. Furthermore, they give you the chance to celebrate the little and big things in life. Festivals are the carriers of peace and joy in the communities. All nations of the world have certain religious and cultural festivals. However, India is one of the largest countries to celebrate numerous festivals.

